

Box has got an internal oversized gasket that doesn't allow the cap to fit properly:

You can remove the gasket from the cap so that the cap fits correctly on the box and it allows the ring to close efficiently. The water tightness of the box is not compromised by taking the gasket off!

